

How to change the background colour on Google Docs

1. Go into your document, or open a new
2. Click "File," located in the top toolbar.
3. Select "Page setup."	 A screenshot of the Google Docs interface showing the 'File' menu open. The menu items include 'Share', 'New', 'Open', 'Make a copy', 'Download', 'Email as attachment', 'Make available offline', 'Version history', 'Rename', 'Move to trash', 'Publish to the web', 'Email collaborators', 'Document details', 'Language', 'Page setup', and 'Print'. A red arrow points to the 'Page setup' option.
4. Click the drop-down under "Page colour," located in the bottom left corner of the pop-up, and select your desired colour from the list of pre-sets.	 A screenshot of the 'Page setup' dialog box. It shows options for Orientation (Portrait/Landscape), Paper size (Letter), and Margins. The 'Page color' section is active, showing a color palette with various pre-set colors. A red arrow points to the 'OK' button at the bottom right of the dialog.
5. Click "OK" — alternatively, you can also opt to make this your new normal by selecting "Set as default."
